If we combine cookies with or link them to any personal information, we would treat this information as personal information. Clear gifs (also known as web bugs or web beacons) are small, invisible graphic images that may be used by the Services or in emails relating to the Services to collect certain information and monitor user activity on the Services and may be combined with Your IP address or other information that we have gathered with respect to a User's use of the Services. If You wish to block, erase, or be warned of cookies, please refer to Your browser instructions or help screen to learn about these functions. However, if a browser is set not to accept cookies or if a User rejects a cookie, some portions of the Services may not function properly. For example, You may not be able to sign in and may not be able to access certain features of the Services.

This Policy does not apply to, we have no control over, and we are not responsible for, cookies and/or clear gifs in third party ads, and we encourage Users to check the privacy policies of advertisers and/or ad services to learn about their use of cookies and/or clear gifs and other technology.
- We use analytics tools to track how You get to our Site and to understand how You use the Site after You arrive.

Information from Other Sources

- We may receive information about You, including personal information, from third parties and third party Web sites (e.g., Facebook, Twitter, etc.) ("Third Party Sites"), in accordance with the policies and terms of such Third Party Sites. Fanplayr may combine this information with other personal information we maintain about You. If we do so, this Policy governs any combined information that we maintain in a personally identifiable format.

THE WAY FANPLAYR USES AND DISCLOSES INFORMATION:

- In general, we use personal information we collect to process Your requests or transactions, to provide You with information or services You request, to inform You about other information, events, promotions, products or services we think will be of interest to You, to facilitate Your use of, and our administration and operation of, the Services, and for the purpose for which the information was provided. For example, we may use the information we collect:
 - to send You a welcoming email and to contact You about Your use of the Services, to provide other services, products or information You request and to complete any transactions in connection therewith;
 - to respond to Your emails, submissions, comments, requests or complaints;
 - to request feedback and to enable us to develop, customize and improve the Services and related publications;
 - to contact You about our or a third party's services, products, activities, special events or offers and for other marketing, informational, product development and promotional purposes;
 - to notify Users about certain events and thresholds, including campaign start and finish dates and that the maximum number of coupons was distributed;
 - for the specific purpose for which the information was provided; and
 - to conduct an aggregate analysis of the performance of promotions.
- Fanplayr may use "cookies" or clear gif information for a number of reasons related to the Services, including to: (a) remember Your information so that You will not have to re-enter it during Your visit or the next time You use the Services; (b) provide customized third-party advertisements, content, and information; (c) monitor the effectiveness of third-party marketing campaigns; (d) monitor aggregate site usage metrics such as total number of visitors and pages viewed; and (e) track Your entries, submissions, and status in any promotions or other activities.
- Fanplayr may also utilize "cookies" or clear gif information in the delivery of advertisements to the Brands on other Web sites across the internet. For example, a "cookie" or clear gif running on the Site identifies the Brand as a subscriber of the Services. Fanplayr or a service provider can then locate this Brand as it visits other Web sites. When the Brand is found by the "cookie" or clear gif, ads for Fanplayr and its partners can be served to that Brand. Fanplayr will collect, via the particular "cookie" or clear gif, the following information: the set of Brands "cookie'd" and/or beacons; whether said Brands viewed the served ad and if the Brand clicked on the ad upon viewing. This type of information can in no way be used to identify a Brand. This data will never be shared with third parties or used to display ads for other third parties without explicit written permission from both clients.

- We have a policy that Fanplayr's employees, agents and contractors must have a legitimate business reason to obtain access to the personal information You may provide to register as a member of the Site and/or to use the Services. We may share Your personal information with companies that provide services to us, including outside contractors or agents who help us manage our information activities (for example, payment processing, data storage, customer service, email delivery, contest and sweepstakes administration and to assist us in our marketing efforts), but we limit the personal information that is provided to these service providers to that which is reasonably necessary to provide us with a specific service and not for any other purpose and we require them to maintain the confidentiality of the personal information.
- Personal information provided online may be linked together or merged with other personal information so that we may better understand Your needs and inform You about our products or services and those of our partners. In addition, if we receive information from third parties with whom we have business relationships, we may combine this information with the other personal information we maintain about You. In either case, this Policy governs this information.
- We may disclose personal information in the good faith belief that we are lawfully authorized or required to do so, or that doing so is reasonably necessary or appropriate to comply with the law or with legal process or authorities, respond to any claims, or to protect the rights, property or safety of the Services, our Users, our employees or the public, including without limitation to protect Fanplayr or our Users from fraudulent, abusive, inappropriate or unlawful use of the Services.
- You understand that when You use the Services information You post in Your public profile and in groups, forums and other interactive areas of the Services will be available to other Users and in some cases may be publicly available and You provide that information at Your sole risk. We recommend You be cautious in giving out personal information to others or sharing such information in public online forums. Even after information posted on the Services is removed, caching and archiving services may have saved that information and other Users or third parties may have copied or stored the information.
- We may disclose personal information in connection with the reorganization, reincorporation, acquisition, debt financing, merger, sale of Fanplayr's relevant assets or business or similar transaction, as well as in the event of an insolvency, bankruptcy, or receivership in which personal information is transferred to one or more third parties as one of our business assets.
- We may use the location information that You provide or that we collect to provide content and services to You based on Your location, such as for making You offers based on your geographic location.
- We use all of the information that You provide or that we collect and/or aggregate to understand and analyze the usage trends, interests, and preferences of our Users, to improve the way the Services work and look and to create new features and functionality.
- USE OF CUSTOMER INFORMATION. We may use Customer information to create usage reports for the Brands based on the level of Services they subscribe to. The reports consist mainly of aggregate information collected when Customers view offers, claim coupons and other incentives and share offers with friends, including, but not limited to, number of coupons collected, number of coupons shared, number of emails submitted, affinity inputs, photos uploaded and survey answers. The only personal information collected and included in the reports is a Customer's email address or Facebook or Twitter sign-in information if Customer interacts with the Services via a Third Party Site. This personal information is collected when a Customer redeems or uses the invitation services to share an offer, incentive or coupon. Except for the provision of reports to the Brands, no other personal information is provided to the Brands. Transfers of personal information to subsequent third parties are covered by the provisions in this Policy regarding notice and choice, and the provisions of the Media Services Agreement in place with each Brand.
